

NAIDOC WEEK CELEBRATION 2022

GET UP! STAND UP! SHOW UP!

The Riverwood Community Centre was honored this year to celebrate NAIDOC Week with a call to unite community members together to collectively sign the Uluru Statement on a display banner, to commemorate it from the heart and endorse a message of unity and respect. The NAIDOC celebration was an opportunity for us to come together and share in a celebration of First Nations history and culture.

"The success of the Uluru Statement from the Heart referendum depends upon the community Get Up! Stand Up! Show Up! to meet this moment " The chairperson of the Riverwood community Centre Clr Karl Saleh OAM.

"We are celebrating the culture and achievements of the world's oldest continuous storytellers and recognising the many who have driven and continue to lead change in our communities." He stated

15 Years of Dedication! Hang Trinh is now retiring.
